A new video and upcoming events

Dear <<First Name>>,

I'm excited to announce the debut of Shift, a 5 minute video produced by Joe Carter, local high school senior, about how Food Shift is revolutionizing food recovery!

We're kicking off spring with several thought-provoking discussions with Bay Area food leaders. I'll be speaking at three different events in March (more details below) and would love to see you all there. Also, I'm also pleased to announce that we now have over 1,000 people and some of the biggest names in food, signed on to our petition to the EPA to encourage the adoption of a national "Food: Too Good to Waste" toolkit. If you haven't already, please check it out, sign on and share.

Thank you for your continued support!

Dana Frasz
